Pair Nabbed In Stolen Car Chase

Two men were arrested by Torrance police early yesterday after the sports car they were charged with stealing attained speeds of up to 110 miles an hour along Pacific Coast Hwy. Charged with auto theft and other traffic violations were Robert L. Ferguson, 21, Venice, and John T. Harrison, 21, San Diego. The tiny sports car is owned by Terry McIntyre, Inglewood. It was reported stolen several hours earlier from the parking lot of a Gardena bowling alley.

Torrance officers Jerry Synder and Ken Halbert said the chase began at Pacific Coast Hwy. and Hawthorne Ave. The machine, officers added, zoomed through red lights at Crenshaw Blvd., Pennsylvania, Cypress, Narbonne, Oak, Eshelman, and Walnut Ave. Two sheriff's units joined local officers in the pursuit.
